FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:

Title 26 U.S.C. § 7206(1): Subscribing to and Filing False Income Tax Returns

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that defendant, David Lincoln Johnson, is hereby committed on Counts 73 and 74 of the Indictment to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 30 months. This term consists of 30 months on each of Counts 73 and 74 of the Indictment to be served concurrently with each other. The 30 month period of incarceration imposed in the instant case is to be partly concurrent with and partly consecutive to the sentence of incarceration imposed in United States v. Hashimoto, docket number ED CR 09-00089-VAP. Twenty-four months of the instant sentence is to run concurrently with the sentence imposed in Hashimoto, and six months of the instant sentence is to run consecutive to the sentence imposed in Hashimoto.

On release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of one year. This term consists of one year on Count 73 and one year on Count 74 of the Indictment, both terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Orders 05-02 and 01-05, including the special conditions;
2. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment, restitution, and any other court-ordered financial obligations in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
3. The defendant shall cooperate with the payment of all delinquent federal and state taxes, and any related penalties and interest which may be imposed. The defendant shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes during the period of community supervision. The defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order;
4. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in any business involving loan programs, telemarketing activities, investment programs or any other business involving the solicitation of funds or cold-calls to customers without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer;
5. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation;

6. The defendant shall not be employed in any position that requires licensing or certification by any local, state or federal agency without prior approval of the Probation Officer; and
7. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample.

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $2,300,000, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3663. This amount consists of $1,882,573 to the fraud victims of the Genesis Fund and $417,427 to victim Internal Revenue Service.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid in full to each victim/payee in the following order:

Victim/Payee	Amount	Priority Order For Full Payment
Genesis Fund Fraud Victims (as identified by the government in relation to the restitution order of defendant VICTOR PRESTON)	$1,882,573	1 st Priority
Internal Revenue Service IRS - RACS, Mail Stop 6261, Restitution 333 W. Pershing Avenue Kansas City, MO 64108	$ 417,427	2 nd Priority

Any unpaid balance of the special assessment and the restitution payments shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments shall be made of at least 10% of defendants's gross monthly income, but not less than $100, whichever is greater. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

For the restitution ordered in this judgment, the defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with his convicted co-participants, to the extent and for the amount that each is determined liable for the same victims' losses.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, on January 5, 2013. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at the United States District Court, 290 N. D Street, Suit 700, San Bernardino, CA 92401.

Bond is exonerated upon surrender.

USA vs. David Lincoln JohnsonDocket No.: CR 05-316 DSF

The Court grants the government's oral motion to dismiss the remaining counts as to this defendant.

The Court advised the defendant of the right to appeal this judgment.

SENTENCING FACTORS: The sentence is based on the factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. §3553, including the applicable sentencing range set forth in the guidelines, as more particularly reflected in the court reporter's transcript.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
